NOT MY WIFE.
Through these labyrinths, not my gray
elling wit.
But thy silk twist, let down from heaven to me.
Did both conduct and teach me how
by it
To climb to Thee.

—George Herbert.

Mrs. J. B. Scott very charmingly entertained the members and a few guests of the N. T. C. Club Thursday afternoon at her home, 1193 Buchanan street, from 4 to 6:30 o'clock. The afternoon was enjoyable spent with needle work and later refreshments of marshmallow pudding, with whipped cream, sherbet and cake were served. The guests of the afternoon were: Mesdames Dockrey, Ellison, J. Wilson, Murphy and King.

Mrs. John McKnight made a very charming hostess Thursday afternoon for the Thursday "Five-hundred" club and a bridge party combined, the tables of bridge being added in compliment to Mrs. R. G. Morris, of Dallas. With their golden glow of lighting the rooms, beautiful sunflowers were arranged as if sunflowers in uncheck profusion, and it was as if the card players sat in the lap of spring to enjoy the games.

At their close the Five-hundred club favors fell to Mrs. Avery Turner, the Mt. Vernon fork and to Mrs. C. E. Snyder the spoon. Mrs. Howard Watson, of St. Louis, received the high score favor for Bridge, at Mt. Vernon fork and Mrs. R. G. Morris, of Dallas was presented with the second favor, a beautiful dress hanger.

Those present were Mesdames R. J. Morris, of Dallas; Howard Watson, of St. Louis, C. E. Gardner, C. A. Fisk, J. J. Stockwell, Shaw, L. T. Barnes, J. Burgess, Corrine Batchell, of Gainesville, C. T. Killigore, Ford Brandenburg, T. J. Considine, C. E. Forbes, W. D. Garwood, F. S. Newbold, E. Tideman, L. B. Shimmon, Avery Turner, C. E. Snyder, and J. W. Kearby.

Mrs. D. D. Dexing was hostess Friday afternoon for the opening meeting of the Standard Class No. 4 at her home, 1210 Buchanan street, from 1 to 6 o'clock. The class was organized with a membership of twenty-five, the first regular meeting to be held Friday September 19, at 7 o'clock the place to be announced later. Mrs. J. H. Beard was elected to the leadership of the lessons which will be in Egypt. The members are very enthusiastic and a winter of music work is looked forward to with real pleasure. The program of study is being shaped, the question of study to be announced later.

Little Roy Samples, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Samples, 2801 Buchanan street, very delightfully entertained a number of his friends on last Friday afternoon, the occasion being his fifth birthday. After indulging in games until tired, they repaired to the spacious dining room which was tastefully decorated with sweet peas and geraniums where they were beautifully helped to ice cream and cake. Quite a number of nice presents were received. The following were present: Mrs. H. A. Stephens and son Eugene, Mrs. Charles Ryan and children, Ethel Ada Louie, Mrs. R. A. Ogg and son Richard, of San Francisco, Calif.; Wesley and Virginia Rose, Berlin and Midland, Cassie and Mrs. J. R. Samples and Roy and Rowena Samples.

Among the very charming events given in honor of Mrs. R. G. Morris of Dallas, the home of Mrs. W. Latony Barnes at 604 Pierce street Friday morning when Mrs. Jorn Shaw and Mrs. Barnes entertained with a delightful "Five-hundred" party followed an elaborate luncheon, will be remembered as one of the most enjoyable. No pains were spared in bringing to perfection the beautiful floral arrangement, which included a rich display of roses with fern and asturiums. At the close of the games which began promptly at 10 o'clock lovely souvenirs were presented to Mrs. E. E. Pickford for high score and to Mrs. Morris as honor guest. At 1 o'clock a delicious luncheon was served to the following guests: Mesdames R. G. Morris, H. P. Andone, Frank Tamm, E. T. Lawler, D. Maupin, S. J. Bolton, Sam Isaacs, Torace Russell, E. E. Pickford, P. Simms, J. W. Kearby, L. B. Simmons, Woods Ellison, R. G. Evans, T. Gardner, Ford Brandenburg, J. S. Newbold, E. Sampson, Musick, A. Fisk, Ray Wheatley, Madge, McLeer, J. McKnight, E. Tideman, C. E. Forbes, Howard Watson, of St. Louis, Harsh, of Detroit, Mich., Misses Doolin, Patchell, of Gainesville, Bernice, Marion and Hortense, Bussell, and Allene Brazelton.

Tuesday afternoon the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Goldsmith, 1612 Polk street was the scene of a very pretty event when Mrs. Goldsmith entertained with a lovely party in honor of the third birthday of their small daughter, Mrs. Kathleen Goldsmith. Pink and white were the dainty colors selected and carried out in the most novel manner. All the rooms were arranged in pink and white sweet peas, but the dining room where the little guests were served, received the greatest consideration. Tall vases of pink and white sweet peas were placed around the room while the table was a picture in its arrangement of these favorites of summer. Pink crepe paper caught at all four corners and meeting at the chandelier, was intertwined with sweet peas and fern. In the center resting on a bed of the same flowers was a beautiful birthday cake, frosted in white and decorated with three pink and white candles. The little misses in the sweetest of white dresses with touches of pink ribbons received the guests.

During the afternoon various games furnished delightful pastime for the wee visitors. During the games pink and white bonbons were served and later pink and white ice cream and cake. Those present were little Misses Kathleen Goldsmith, Hilda Wilson, Agnes Vernon, Kathleen Pittman, Margaret Asche, Rachel Burgess, Mamie Grace, Kath-

The Autopiano

Has the Seal of Government Approval

Scores of United States ships carry from one to three Autopianos and in dozens of the garrisons in the United States, on the Isthmus, in Alaska and across the sea in the Philippines the Autopiano is the best friend of officers and men. Staunch as the ships that carry it, the Autopiano has never been excelled in ability to stand up under hard service. Its expression control is complete—everything we know about the Autopiano is a reason why you should buy it.
